

KARATE STRUCTURES

BY

IAN LE ROUX

TWO MAIN KARATE ORGANISATION

Karate South Africa
(KSA)

Japan Karate Association of South Africa
(SA JKA)

KARATE SOUTH AFRICA (KSA)

KARATE SOUTH AFRICA (KSA)

- Primarily responsible for sport karate

KARATE SOUTH AFRICA (KSA)

- Primarily responsible for sport karate
- An all styles organisation

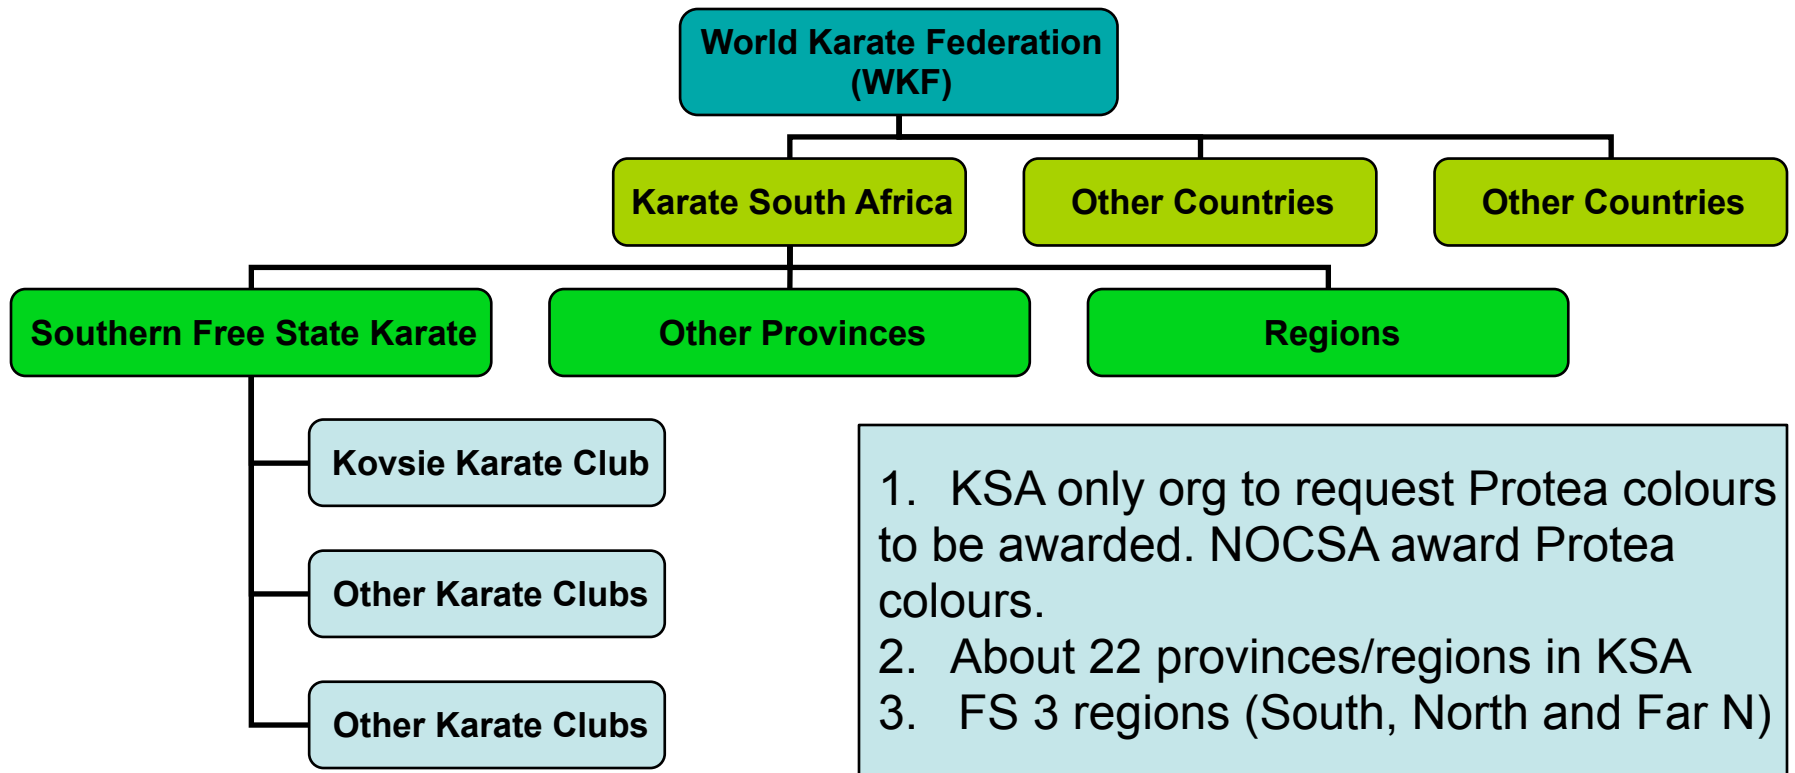

KARATE SOUTH AFRICA (KSA)

- Primarily responsible for sport karate
- An all styles organisation
- All KSA mandated tournaments like:
 - Provincial/regional Championships
 - Zone 6 Championships
 - Commonwealth Champs
 - World Championship

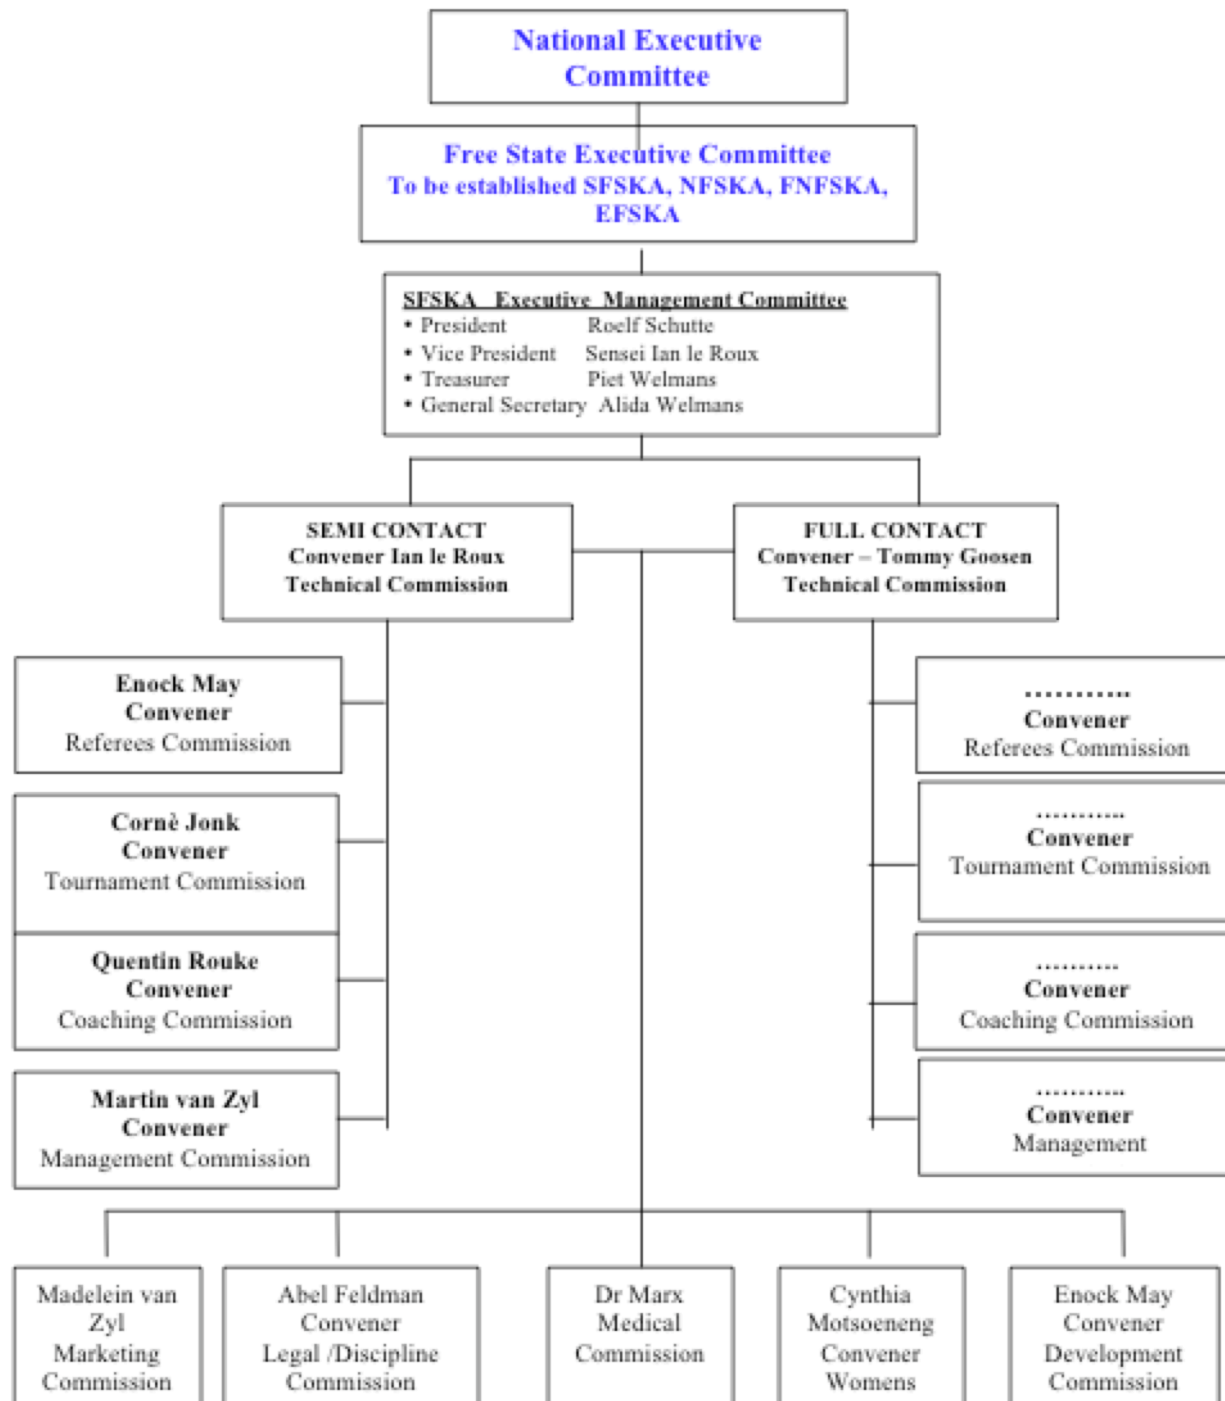

JAPANESE KARATE ASSOCIATION OF SOUTH AFRICA (SA JKA)

- A style organisation (others are Goju Ryu, Goju Kai, Shito Ryu, etc)
- Originate from and practice the Shotokan Karate Style
- Responsible for technical development of karate.
- FS JKA Champs
- SA JKA Champs

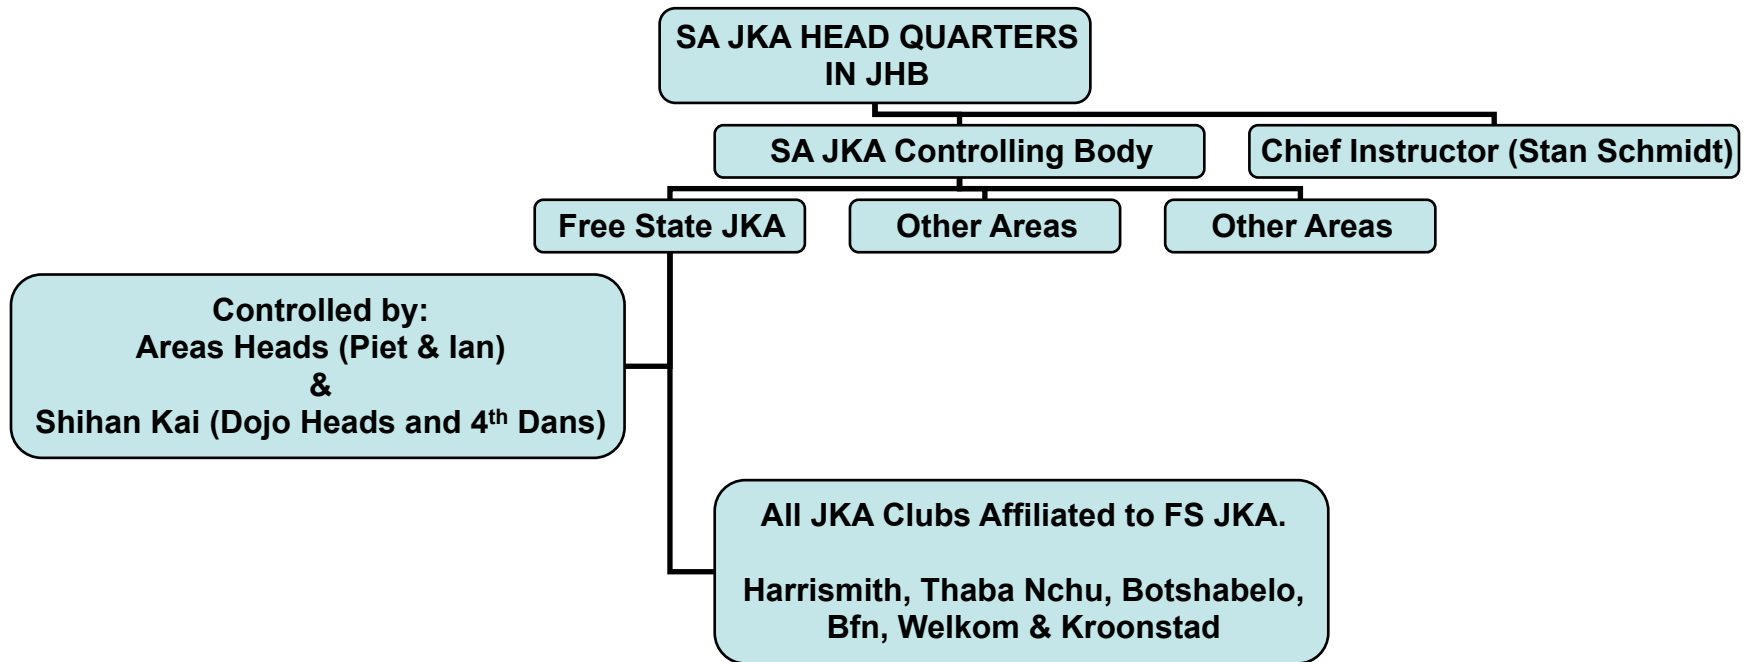

KSA Structure

A club or style must affiliate to the region in whose borders it is situated.
This then obviously applies to athletes.

SA JKA Structure

Principle of Freedom of Association is applied to determine to which area does a dojo affiliate

JKA Central Region

